CRESSINA FOOLS EXPERTS

BEATS MONTGOMERY AND OTHER CRACKS IN GOING DEEMED UNFAVORABLE TO HER.

Three Favorites and Three Non-Favorites Win at Oakland—Thanksgiving Handicap Horses Work Well.

San Francisco, Cal., November 24.—Cressina, Andrew Jackson Joyner's old favorite and sold at a sacrifice before his departure for England last fall, captured today's feature at Oakland from four horses of renown, in Montgomery, Astronomer, W. T. Overton and Frank Flittner. The race, which was named in honor of Judge Carter, a horseman and racing official of glorious memory, was run over a track fetlock deep in mud in the remarkably fast time of 1:41⅗. In its winning the mare not only upset popular traditions with respect to the ability of the get of Watercress to run in heavy going successfully, but stamped herself a thoroughbred of exceptional merit. When Cressina was knocked down to F. D. Weir in the Gravesend paddock last September Mr. Joyner remarked: "There goes the cheapest ready-made race horse ever sold in this country." She came into the possession of E. J. Ramsey, her present owner, through the claiming process only last Saturday for $1,325. Because of the many representations that the mare could not run well in the mud, he tried to persuade the stewards to excuse her, but this they would not do and the ring, which was cognizant of the request, began to take great liberties with Cressina in the betting, laying as high as 20 to 1 in some cases. This temerity cost the layers a large sum of money, one man alone, Benny Falk, being credited with a big winning. It was a luckily achieved victory, as Montgomery, the best horse in the race, was seriously fouled and virtually removed at the start. He just failed to get up in a wonderful effort.

Despite the deceptive going, favorites held their own, three of them in Madman, Bellwether and Anna May getting home in front. The two first named were at odds on. The victorious outsiders were Marion Rose, Cressina and Remember. It was a day of high-class sport and a great crowd was present.

Three prominent candidates for the big Thanksgiving Day stakes, Dandelion, Royal Tourist and Don Enrique, worked between races. While none of them was sent along at top speed their work was of the most satisfying kind, Dandelion in particular striding along freely and powerfully over a track to which he is supposed to be the reverse of partial. Hildreth's chief dependence in Thursday's big race, however, will be Montgomery, which is well in with 118 pounds, and he is making strenuous efforts to induce R. L. Thomas to allow Shilling to remain over to ride him. It is not beyond the bounds of possibility that Dandelion may be shipped down to Santa Anita at the last moment to try for the Pomona Handicap, to be decided there the same day.

Former jockey W. Knapp, at present in New York seeking reinstatement by the Jockey Club, telegraphs that he has received positive assurances that favorable action will be taken in his case by the stewards at their next meeting. Knapp is one of the most capable jockeys in the country and very popular with the local race-going public.

The stewards conducted an investigation into the running of Fireball on Saturday, without result as yet.

AGNEW'S VIEW OF THE DECISION.

New York, November 24.—Senator George B. Agnew, one of the authors of the Hart-Agnew bills, today expressed himself as not in the least disturbed over the decision of the Appellate Division that oral betting was not illegal under the new law.

"The decision is exactly in accordance with the stand I took during the hearings on the bills last winter," said the senator. "At that time I declared that the Hart-Agnew bills did not prohibit oral wagers.

"The remarkable thing about it was that while the lawyers for the race track interests, Mr. Auerbach and others, before the committee, asserted that the bills did prohibit oral betting, they since have attempted to get the ruling which the court has just made. They have been fighting vigorously for such a construction of the anti-gambling bills."

"Will the law be strengthened?" Senator Agnew was asked.

"I don't know why. We did all that we wanted to last winter. Our fight was against organized gambling at the race tracks, and, as I understand the decision, it plainly states that the statute contemplates the prohibition of bookmaking. The bills accomplish what we set out to do, and, although the race track people may set out to obscure the issue, as they did during the fight for the bills, the court decision in itself upholds the laws."

"Do you think that the decision will bring about a revival of bookmaking?"

"Certainly not. The decision has to do specifically with oral bets, and under it no one will dare to resume bookmaking at the race tracks."

POINTS TO BE SETTLED BY COURTS.

Judicial Definition of Bookmaking Deemed Probable Solution of Racing Quandary.

New York, November 24.—Turfmen appear to be much encouraged by the decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the Collins case, and many of them are inclined to believe that racing will be on a fair footing next season. From the fact that it seems to be legal for two persons to make a bet on a horse race, turfmen say there should be no reason why an unlimited number of bets can not be made. Sifting it down, race track attorneys say the whole situation hinges on what is the legal meaning of the words "bookmaker" and "bet." One of these attorneys, in discussing the matter yesterday, said:

"I think it will develop after some court proceedings that if it is legal for two persons to make an oral wager and settle after a race in cash it is also legal to make some kind of private memorandum of the same. I cannot see how a man can be charged with misdemeanor for recording a bet that is not illegal in the eyes of the law. It is simply a common sense proposition, that is all. There is no reason why a memorandum of an oral wager cannot be made any more than it is a crime to jot down in your notebook the sale of a house or a piece of property. A man cannot be convicted of a crime unless he is guilty.

"With that point in view and considering the decision of the Appellate Division that two persons can make oral wagers and settle in cash without committing a violation of the law nobody with any sense at all will believe that a man who makes a record of such a transaction is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year.

"In the Bischoff decision which has been sustained by the Appellate Division it is clearly pointed out that oral wagers are legal when not made by bookmakers or poolsellers. That raises the point which will settle the entire controversy one way or another. What is a bookmaker or poolseller?

"Magistrate Geismar over in Brooklyn rendered a decision not long ago which will probably be passed upon in time by the highest court in the state. Eighteen so-called bookmakers were arraigned before him charged with violating the law because they had been accepting oral wagers at the race track. Magistrate Geismar finally discharged them all, at the same time declaring that a bookmaker was a man who stood in a fixed place, displayed odds on a slate or card, solicited business from all comers, accepted and recorded cash wagers. Not one of the eighteen bookmakers, so-called, had conducted business in this manner. They did not stand in 'fixed places' at the track and displayed no odds. Neither did they accept cash wagers nor recorded them.

"If Magistrate Geismar's ruling is sustained, therefore, racing will be conducted absolutely without so-called bookmaking, but there will be betting among individuals and men who were formerly bookmakers will not be ineligible. They will be individuals like other people and will have equal privileges.

"Just what a bet is in the opinion of the court must be learned before another racing season. If no money is posted in the hands of a stakeholder it is my opinion that no bet is made, for there is no way to collect the amount of the wager unless the loser consents to pay up. A 'stakeholder' is in the same class with the 'bookmaker' and 'poolseller,' so that if a man accepts cash wagers promiscuously he may be charged with violating the law.

"If it is decided that a man who accepts a wager cannot record it or have it recorded by a clerk, the courts may be asked to pass on the question as to whether or not a man who makes a cash bet can record his own wager on a slip of paper or a card and hand it with the money to a so-called former bookmaker.

"The Hart-Agnew law as it stands prohibits 'bookmakers,' so-called, from doing business, but according to court decisions it does not prevent a man from making a bet. Then why shouldn't a bettor make his own record of the wager without violating the law?

"You see there are a number of knotty questions which must be solved, but I believe that when things have been smoothed over you'll find that race track patrons can have plenty of leeway without getting into trouble. Just as soon as we find out what we can do at the race track without fear of arrest the oppression and persecution by county authorities and the police will cease. It was this oppression that kept people away from the tracks last summer and caused the various associations to lose thousands of dollars."

AN IMPOSTOR QUICKLY UNMASKED.

San Francisco, Cal., November 24.—It has developed that the young man who has been posing about town during the last few days as jockey Willie Martin is an impostor. Sam Hildreth, owner of the greatest racing stable at the Oakland track, whose name had been freely used by the pseudo jockey in connection with his avowed intention of resuming riding in America, after an alleged engagement abroad, declared yesterday that he had no idea who the fellow could be, and that he had made nobody any such proposition as the impostor had claimed.

The publication of the impostor's picture led to the exposure of the deception. Turfmen who saw it declared without hesitation that there was not the least resemblance between the published picture and that of the real Willie Martin. Furthermore, it was learned from several who had seen Martin in the east during the last summer that "Jockey Bill," as he is familiarly called, had not been abroad at all.

What the fellow's object could be in representing himself as Willie Martin is not easy to figure out, but the general belief is that he had some scheme in mind by which he expected to turn his imposition to account. Although the fellow was careful not to put in an appearance at the track, and the case is not one in which the jockey club could be expected to take much interest, the jockey club management has put the matter into the hands of the Pinkertons. An effort will be made to locate and prosecute the fellow, if it develops that he has engaged in any shady transaction.

EARNINGS OF BURLEW & O'NEILL'S B. & O. STABLE

The combination of trainer Fred Burlew and ex-jockey Frank O'Neill as joint proprietors of a racing stable did not exist long, but while it did was a decided success, two better than average colts, Angelus and Chapultepec, winning some important stakes for them, while useful racers of lower class did their own parts well. The stable would probably have continued as a feature of racing but for the repressive legislation in New York, that caused Burlew to conclude it was a good time to sell out and quit his own country for a racing career in France. The most important events that fell to the stable were the City Park Derby, won by Angelus, and the Carlton Stakes at Gravesend, in which Chapultepec simply ran away from Question Mark, Transvaal, Royal Tourist and Robert Cooper. Royal Tourist was favorite at 11 to 20. Less important stakes that were won for the stable by the two speedy three-year-olds were the Lagarde, King Cotton, New Year and Merchants', at New Orleans; Sterling at Aqueduct, Myrtle at Gravesend and Catskill and Champlain at Saratoga. In all the record of the stable was as follows:

ANOTHER NEW YORK TURF CASE.

New York, November 24.—Following the decision of the Appellate Division of the First Department, which declared that private wagering at the race tracks is not a violation of the Hart-Agnew law, where neither of the parties to the wager is a professional gambler, counsel for Orlando A. Jones, "Sol" Lichtenstein and a score of other bookmakers, arrested at the local tracks last summer, argued for their release on habeas corpus proceedings before Judge Maddox, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

Judge Maddox reserved decision.

TEXAS RACING DATES FOR NEXT YEAR.

Beaumont, Tex., November 24.—Dr. A. E. Flowers, of Dallas, who is the general manager of the Beaumont Racing Association, announced that the annual meeting of the Texas Thoroughbred Association will be held in this city Monday, November 30. The main purpose of this meeting will be to fix racing dates for the coming year. Every director of the association will be present and likewise representatives from every racing organization under the jurisdiction of the Texas Thoroughbred Association.

WINTERING AT WASHINGTON

MANY HORSES QUARTERED AT A TRACK THAT IS LOST TO RACING.

John E. Madden, J. W. Colt and Chelsea Stable Among Those Patronizing the Course at the National Capital.

Washington, D. C., November 24.—The old Benning track represents a scene of activity despite the fact that no racing was held here this fall and with little prospect of a meeting next spring. In late years many horsemen have found the course of the Washington Jockey Club a particularly favorable one for exercising horses during the cold winter months and it is always possible to give youngsters an early training start here. The track is sandy and of a character not easily affected by frost, so that many horses are daily exercised over it through the cold weather. John E. Madden wintered a string of his horses here several years ago as an experiment and the results were so satisfactory that each winter since has found a majority of his horses stabled here. This year Madden has thirty yearlings in training over the track, besides eight horses from his older division.

J. W. Colt has his string of jumpers quartered here for the winter under charge of Mike Daly. In the string are Thistledale, Prince of Pilsen, Charles G. Gates, Peep In, Reginald, Octopus, Ironsides and the flat runner, Sal Volatile. Others that will join them shortly are Kara, Prince Hampton, Commodore Fontaine, Percentage and two other green jumpers. The last-named ones are on Mr. Colt's farm, but will be turned over to Daly.

It was at Benning that Daly fitted the horses of Mr. Colt for the 1908 season, in which they acquitted themselves so creditably. The cross-country course of the Washington Jockey Club offers every opportunity for schooling and it is possible to send the horses along moderately all through the cold months.

The Chelsea Stable always winters at Washington, and this season the string is made up of Aster d'Or, Taboo, Spanish Prince, Cartwheel, Connaught Ranger, The Wrestler and ten yearlings. Preston M. Burch, who handled the stable with such success during the season, has taken a vacation, which he is spending in California. He will be back the latter part of December to take up the yearlings and begin the process of molding them into race winners.

J. A. Sykes has charge of the horses of Patrick Gallagher that are quartered here. Sykes was the man to develop that good little jumper, Tip Gallant. Those in his care at this time are Croydon, Andalusia and three yearlings that will be fitted for an early start next spring. The yearlings have all been going along exceedingly well, considering the season, and over the deep going here have shown quarters in better than 26.

J. S. Hoy's horses are another addition to the winter colony here. In the string which trainer Purcell is handling are Ragman, Lady Karma and a carload of yearlings purchased at the Sheepshead Bay sales.

M. C. Kelly has charge of the stables of W. P. Burch and W. A. Chanler. In his care are ten yearlings, some of which have already attracted attention. Probably the best one in the stable is a half sister to S. C. Hildreth's Dandelion. She has shown plenty of speed in her trials and gives promise of future usefulness.

Col. W. H. Mosby's horses are reported as doing exceedingly well. In this stable are Balbek, Brown Tony and a dozen yearlings. Colonel Mosby himself has gone to California with Dalton McCarthy, the jockey on whom he holds a contract, and he will look after the interests of the boy on the coast.

The horses of Roy A. Rainey and some of those that raced in the colors of his brother, Paul J. Rainey, were at Washington after the close of the meeting at Pimlico, but some of them have been shipped to Tippah Farm in Mississippi and others will soon leave for the same place. In the shipment to go will be the jumpers, T. S. Martin, Sanctus and King Castle, with De Mund, Horace E. and a dozen others. It is the intention of Ed Peters, who handles the Rainey horses, to make up a string of seven to be campaigned at Santa Anita during the winter.

USE OF EQUIPMENTS REGULATED.

San Francisco, Cal., November 24.—As a result of the act of a valet in providing jockey Sweet with a whip on Jeanne d'Arc contrary to the wishes and instructions of trainer Rolla Colston of the Forsythe Stable, Presiding Judge Hopper took measures to insure greater care in the carrying out of the rules regarding the equipment of the horses with whips, spurs and blinkers while racing over the Oakland track. Trainers will henceforth be required to show consistency in the use of any and all of the equipments enumerated.

Jeanne d'Arc never felt the sting of a whip in a race until Sweet gave her a cut in Saturday's valuable handicap, in which she finished second to Fitz Herbert. The filly swerved badly under the punishment, and trainer Colston believes that she would have at least been closer up to the winner but for the unauthorized use of the whip. He was considerably stirred up over the matter and filed a complaint with Judge Hopper, in consequence of which an official order was issued designed to prevent a repetition of the occurrence.

EUGENIA BURCH'S DAM DIES.

Lexington, Ky., November 24.—The Humber, dam of Eugenia Burch and Belle Strome, choked to death while eating her oats at Dixiana Farm last night. The Humber was twenty years old and was bred in England, being by Bread Knife—Keepsake, by Memory.

CLOSE OF FASIG-TIPTON SALE.

Small Prices Mark the Second Day of the Sale—Corrigan's Auction Today.

Lexington, Ky., November 24.—The Fasig-Tipton Company's ninth annual Kentucky sale of thoroughbreds was concluded this afternoon, and tomorrow the stallions, mares, weanlings and horses in training belonging to Edward Corrigan will be sold at the Corrigan farm, six miles from this city, under the management of the Fasig-Tipton Company. The auction today embraced 121 head, the greater number being without apparent individuality and not of attractive quality. The result was that the majority went to traders and speculators at low prices, but for as much as they were worth, everything considered. The aggregate today was $14,960, an average of $123.70. The figures for the two days were 216 head for $48,925, an average of $226.50. This, when compared with the average obtained at Colonel Milton Young's dispersal sale a month ago, shows an increase of over $50 per head, and fully sustains the forecast made that the demand for thoroughbreds of good quality, as well as cheaper ones for trading purposes, is growing stronger daily.

Only the very best stallions, however, are in request. This means that the progeny of every Tom, Dick and Harry with five crosses and a brother or sister that has raced well will not be wanted. The breeders are wise enough to see this and are letting poor and untried ones go. This was fully illustrated when the sale opened this morning with an offering of seven stallions. Oiseau, good race horse that he was, brought only $150. Waterlight, another from the stable of James B. Brady, was knocked down for $300, and Orison, likewise of the Brady offering, brought $125. Billy Lakeland's Goldcrest was led in but there was not a single bid for him and he was passed out again. Herbert, the horse that built the fortune of the late Walter Rollins, goes up to New Brunswick for $260. Imported Gone Coon was knocked down to a dealer in jacks for $35 and twenty-year-old Hermence, sire of Hermis, with his right eye out and swayed in his back, was sold to a firm of traders of Columbia, Ky., for $20.

The highest price of the day was $700 for the once great race mare, Miss Crawford. She was knocked down to Dr. Williams, of Adelbert Stud, Hopkinsville. A yearling half-brother to Lad of Langden was bought by Ira Fitzgerald of Latonia for $525. Those bringing the best prices of the day were:

Waterlight, br. h, 6, by Watercress—Lumina; F. A. Clark $300
Little Whit, b. f, 3, by Mazagan—Misbat; C. W. Moore 300
Fair Messenger, b. f, 2, by Resolute II.—Kilt; J. L. Kirby 375
Miss Crawford, ch. m, 7, by Tenny—Flo II; M. W. Williams 700
Santa Barbara, b. m, 6, by Melanion—Regalia II.; T. J. Carson 325

Yearlings.

Bay gelding, by Plaudit—Nellie Osborne; S. M. Reynolds 425
Bay gelding, by Meltonian—Topsy Turvy; S. M. Reynolds 300
Chestnut filly, by Contestor—The Laundress; J. C. Milam 300

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey C. H. Shilling will go to Los Angeles to ride the Thomas horses on the opening day of the Santa Anita Park meeting.

P. P. Pomeroy, who will act as associate judge and clerk of the scales at Santa Anita, has announced his intention of settling in southern California for good.

E. T. Miller, of Chicago, has shipped his fast three-year-old filly, Night Mist, to Beaumont, Tex. She should prove a good addition to the sprinters now racing on that circuit.

Report comes from San Francisco that a coroner's jury has exonerated H. G. Bedwell from all blame in connection with the death of the boy who was run down and killed by Bedwell's automobile last week.

Judge Murphy restored the Haft stable, consisting of Ora Sudduth, Bosom Friend and Cerro Santa, to good standing. They were suspended pending an investigation of charges brought against the trainer connected with them.

"Red" Walker has pointed Stanley Fay for the Pomona Handicap to be run on the opening day at Santa Anita Park and figures on having a good chance with the colt, unless the weight assigned him proves too burdensome.

T. J. Lee's good colt Blagg is again reported sick. Blagg had a close call shortly after his arrival on the coast from Butte, but recovered and was going along promisingly in his preparations for racing when the second attack came.

A. Albright has left New York for Savannah, Ga., with Battleaxe, St. Joseph, O. U. Kid and some two-year-olds that he will race through that southern season. Should the horses meet with a fair share of success the stable may be shipped to Havana for the Cuban meeting, which begins December 1.

Hart Dernham, who has acted as racing secretary at the different tracks in Texas, is receiving much praise for his work in assigning the weights in the various handicaps. The duel between First Premium and Joe Stokes in the Bob Levy Handicap last week at Houston, was the result of Dernham's handicapping.

Dr. Rowell has decided to give Firestone a respite from training in hope that he will regain his form, the colt having lost about twenty-five pounds in weight as the result of his two hard races since the opening of the season.

Sam Stern, formerly entry clerk for the New California Jockey Club, has reached San Francisco from Salt Lake, where he acted as assistant to Manager W. M. Murray during the thirty-days meeting recently concluded at that place. Stern will be connected in a similar capacity with the sixty-days meeting scheduled to begin the coming month at El Paso, Tex., under Murray's management. Murray is planning to give a $1,000 handicap at El Paso on Christmas day and a stake of similar value on some other date. He believes the prospects excellent for a successful meeting to wind up the Texas circuit.

J. P. K., Chicago. In races 77315 and 77321 Spite should read Speight. London started in two races, 77773 and 77789.

C. H., Chicago. In case of a dead heat the money bet is added together and divided equally between the backer and layer. For example, $5 bet on Bewitched at 8 to 5 would be $13 bet, of which the backer of Bewitched would take $6.50 and the bookmaker $6.50. In the case of Associate it would be $12.50 to each.

P. F., Chicago. Many four-mile races have been run at New Orleans. In 1854 Lexington ran that distance there in 7:19¾, and his time stood as the record until his grandson, Fellowcraft, ran in 7:19½ at Saratoga twenty years later. The latest winner there at four miles was Major Mansir in a race at the Fair Grounds track, March 21, 1903.

Kokomo, after pulling up in the first sixteenth, closed a big gap on the extreme outside under a bad ride. St. Joe, from a slow start, ran forwardly for five furlongs and quit. Melar closed a big gap from a poor start. Beechwood was flatfooted at the start. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Rubia Granda, away poorly, closed up rapidly into a rushing second and is in grand form. Little Jane set the early pace, but was crowded back at the half and finished fast. Strike Out ran forwardly to the stretch and quit badly. Angleface, from a slow start, made up ground in the last half. Ocean Queen, not ready, showed brief early speed and retired.

Deutschland broke slowly and met early interference, but closed up steadily and swerved into defeat in a great stretch rush. Collector Jessup ran in nearest pursuit of the pacemaker and made a game finish. Booger Red ran in forward early contention, but was crowded out and forced to pull up and could never get up afterwards. Fantastic made up ground slowly and finished close up. Milford is out of place in sprints. The winner was entered for $1,800; no bid.

Winner—B. m, by Watercress—Carina (trained by F. Neville).
Went to post at 2:58. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Cressina, luckily and forwardly placed, was skillfully reserved in nearest attendance on the pacemaker and made good in the last stride of a long closing drive. Montgomery, crowded off his stride repeatedly on the first turn, could never quite get up in a sensational effort, but was best. Astronomer, outpaced early, finished like a whirlwind. W. T. Overton outbroke and outpaced the others for six furlongs and tired in the closing drive. Frank Flittner trailed hopelessly all the way.
Scratched—78287 Tony Faust, 104.

78314 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. (69056—1:43—5—106.) Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—Br. f, by Previous—Denise (trained by O. A. Bianchi).
Went to post at 3:24. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Remember, from a lucky start, ran in nearest, but distant, early pursuit of Creation, then closed up rapidly in the last half and drew out decisively at the end. Creation threatened to spreadeagle the others for the first half, but tired badly afterwards under a bad ride. L. C. Ackerley, from a slow start, steadily improved his position into a fast going third. J. R. Laughrey was well up all the way. Elevation loomed up on the far turn and tired in the closing drive. Spring Ban was shuffled quickly to the rear. Orchan failed to stay after showing early speed. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Scratched—78236 Carmelina, 98; 78173 Billy Watkins, 93; 78284 King Brush, 103.

78315 SIXTH RACE—3-4 Mile. (78289—1:11⅗—3—110.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

Winner—B. f, by King Eric—Fig Leaf (trained by H. Booker).
Went to post at 3:53. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Anna May, from a slow inside start, drew out quickly and, setting a stiff pace, shook off her fast pursuer and came away midway of the stretch. Belle Kinney ran lapped on the winner for five furlongs before tiring. Curriculum ran forwardly from the start and finished resolutely. Von Tromp, away poorly, closed a big gap into a fast going fourth. Mabel Hollander held on well. Plausible was short. Tawasentha is not good. Aftermath can do better. Free Knight the Bear was seemingly outclassed in the going. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Scratched—78232^2 St. Francis, 112; 78288 Rockstone, 109.
Overweights—Tawasentha, 1 pound.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED TODAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.

JOCKEYSHIP IN ENGLAND.

London, Eng., November 9.—Upon resuming his duties in the saddle this week, after his month's suspension, F. Wootton was not long in showing that he was in as good form as ever, and though he has had to put up with second place on several occasions he has added five wins to his account, which stands at 103. Following his three successes at Alexandra Park last Saturday, Maher has not done a great deal, though he has fared better than his nearest rival, Higgs, whom he now leads by eleven points. It will not be possible, after "standing down" so long, for Wootton to head the winning jockeys' list at the end of the season so rapidly approaching, unless the pair in front of him should have very bad fortune indeed; but the youngster's riding will continue to supply a feature of interest to the finish.

The riding record to date is as follows:

Lord Derby has renewed for 1909 the first claim which his father, the late earl, used to hold on the services of Maher. The jockey has so far arranged no second claim, but negotiations are in progress which may or may not come to anything. Halsey has, for the ninth consecutive year, been engaged to ride first jockey to Sir Ernest Cassel for 1909. Higgs has engaged himself to ride for Beckhampton next season. Beyond this he has at present no contract.

LORD ROSEBERY'S LUCK ON THE TURF.

It is related of Lord Rosebery that when a schoolboy he bet a companion a sovereign that he would marry the richest heiress in England, become premier and own the winner of the Derby before he died. How he has realized his ambition is a matter of history. He has, it is well known, won the Derby three times in all.

His Lordship was once in the east end of London at election time, and while inspecting a great establishment several of the employes, whose knowledge of the distinguished guest chiefly centered in him as the owner of a good horse, communicated to one of the company their wish that Lord Rosebery would do them a favor.

"What is it you want—a speech?" asked the gentleman.

"A speech. No, speech be hanged," was the reply. "We want a tip for the Liverpool Cup."

To few owners is given the chance of running two Derby winners in one race. When, therefore, Lord Rosebery availed himself of the opportunity and started both Ladas and Sir Visto for the Jockey Club Stakes of 1895 he established a record, nobody else having run two Derby victors in one event of any description whatever.

DICKENS PICKED THREE WINNERS.

Charles Dickens happened to be in Doncaster one Leger day. The story of his "spotting three winners" on that occasion is told in Forster's life of the great novelist:

"He bought the card, facetiously wrote down three names as the winners of the three chief races (never in his life having heard or thought of any of the horses, except that the winner of the Derby, which proved to be nowhere, had been mentioned to him). In a letter to his biographer he says:

"'If you can believe it, without your hair standing on end, those three races were won one after another by those three horses.'"

Dickens truly described this as a "wonderful, paralyzing coincidence."
